HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Today we celebrate author Pat Mora. She is a Mexican American Latina author of poetry, nonfiction books, and children's books. Many of her writings showcase the Mexico-United States border where she was born and spent most of her life. Mora founded the Children's Day, Book Day event in 1996. It includes a commitment to promote literacy and celebrates books that unite the community. It has now grown in the US to include all children, languages, and cultures. She says that, "if we want our nation to be a country of readers...we need to work together to inspire communities in nurturing reading families.
